

THE OHIO STATE
UNIVERSITY

Western Reserve EERA 4-H Volunteer & Youth Development Day

Join 4-H volunteers & youth from across NE Ohio to
'make the best better'!

March 23, 2016 6:00 - 9:00 p.m.
Lorain County JVS
15181 St. Rt. 58, Oberlin

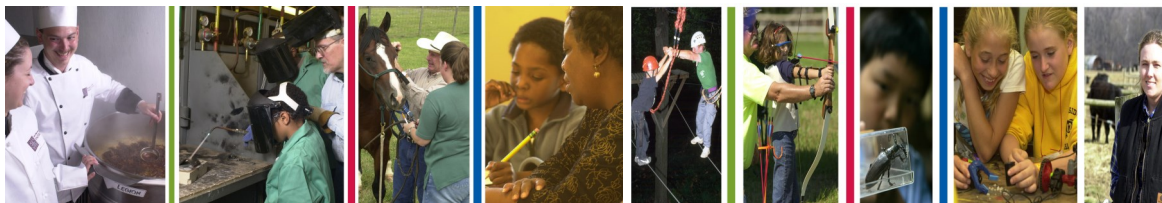

Volunteers and 4-H youth are invited to this multi-county educational opportunity. Participants will be able to attend 2 workshops or 1 workshop and complete their mandatory Policy 1.50 session.

Workshop topics scheduled:

- * Policy 1.50 Child Abuse & Neglect
- * FCS Projects and their Requirements
- * Club Finance
- * Risk Management for 4-H Clubs & Programs
- * Animal Projects and their Requirements
- * Advisor Update
- * Teens and Team Building
- * Officer Training

Register for this no-fee event by completing the registration form and submitting it to the Lorain County OSU Extension Office NO LATER THAN FRIDAY, MARCH 18th!

E-mail: czarnecki.1@osu.edu, Fax: 440-326-5878, or
Mail: OSU Extension, 42110 Russia Rd, Elyria, OH 44035

REGISTRATION FORM

4-H Volunteer & Youth Training

THE OHIO STATE
UNIVERSITY

Please select (✓) 2 of the following sessions to attend:

6:30—7:30 p.m. Session #1

- Animal Projects and their requirements. — Julie Mackey. Learning for the 4-H club member enrolled in an animal project - Find out what is expected for 4-H members when completing a livestock project. What is mandatory and what is suggested? How can clubs better utilize project books? Learn about the county skillathon and hear ideas for implementing skillathons into your 4-H club. Brainstorm creative ways to recognize members for learning about their project!
- Advisor Update. — Lizz Share. Training includes topics covering finance, insurance, new forms and projects, new Volunteer Handbook, activities for clubs
- Risk Management for Clubs. — Jackie Krieger. Learn how to increase your awareness of potential risks in 4-H and ways to manage those risks. We'll all be safer and happier!
- Officer Training. — Jenna Hoyt and Pat Klingshirn. Learn about what your responsibilities in your respective office are and how to fulfill them. Review how to properly complete your officer books, and how to prepare for officer book contest.
- Policy 1.50 Child Abuse & Neglect. — Alisha Faudie. This session consists of recognizing child abuse, what role 4-H volunteers' play, and outlines the Ohio State University's policies and guidelines. This is mandatory to be completed once a year now.

7:45—8:45 p.m. Session #2

- Policy 1.50 Child Abuse & Neglect. — Lizz Share. This session consists of recognizing child abuse, what role 4-H volunteers' play, and outlines the Ohio State University's policies and guidelines. This is mandatory to be completed once a year now.
- Club Finance. — Jeff Dick. Best practices for club finance.
- Teens and Team Building. — Valerie Hearst and Ashley Mowen. Team building: An important part of building strong 4-H clubs or groups is making sure that each person knows everyone else in the group and has a sense of belonging. This session will provide participants with useful initiatives and team building activities to help volunteers and members build a strong connection.
- FCS Projects and their Requirements. — Judy Pickworth. What are FCS projects? Learning for the 4-H club member enrolled in an Family Consumer Science project - Find out what is expected for 4-H members when completing an FCS project. What is mandatory and what is suggested?

Participant Information

Name

Address

E-mail Address

Phone

County

Register for this no-fee event by completing this registration form and submitting it to the OSU Extension Lorain County Office 4-H by March 18, 2016. E-mail: czarnecki.1@osu.edu or Fax: 440-326-5878
OSU Extension, Lorain County
42110 Russia Rd., Elyria OH 44035